

INTERNAL POSTING

Job Title : Conventional Machinist
Supervisor : Structure & Composites Manager
Schedule : HB
Number of position : 1

Rôle and responsibilities

- Read and interpret technical drawings, plans, graphs, and tables
- Examine samples of parts to determine the machining operations to be performed and the optimal sequence of operations
- Set up and operate machine tools such as milling machines and lathes in a conventional manner
- Design tools and jigs that meet the needs and requests of technicians.
- Use precision instruments to measure whether parts are compliant.
- Adjust and assemble manufactured parts.
- Work closely with the aircraft team leader to ensure that work is completed on schedule.
- Identify special tools and external services required and inform the department Manager;
- Promote the quality management system and make suggestions for improvement;
- Actively explore new ways to improve productivity while maintaining quality.

Requirements

- Vocational diploma in machining or other relevant training;
- 5+ years of experience in conventional machining;
- Experience in the aerospace industry and/or welding is an asset;
- Skills in reading plans and performing trigonometric calculations;
- Knowledge of manufacturing processes;
- Good manual dexterity, attention to detail, and spatial awareness;
- Fluency in French and/or English (spoken and written) to perform the job effectively;
- Ability to work in a team and under pressure.

Posting date : November 4th, 2025

End of posting : November 11th, 2025

Please indicate your interest in the position in writing to the following address:
rh@arcorp.com before the end of the posting period. Please mention the job title in the